Our Evening Thought

There is no duty we so much underrate as the duty of being happy. By being happy we sow anonymous benefits upon the world, which remain unknown even to ourselves, or when they are disclosed, surprise nobody so much as the benefactor.

Sister Carlotta Honored

The following from the St. Augustine Record will be of interest to many of our readers:

Sister Esther Carlotta, state president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy for Florida, who has for the past two years acted as chairman of the judges' committee of the United Daughters of the Confederacy in the prize essay contest, in token of appreciation of her work in this capacity, has been presented by the Martin Hoyt Company of Atlanta with a beautiful set of books, The Library of Southern Literature. This company, which is a big Atlanta publishing house, has donated the prizes for the contests, these consisting of sets of the same valuable work, and now it presents to the chairman this unusually attractive set consisting of sixteen royal octavo volumes bound in red leather tooled in gold with the state seal of Florida embossed on the cover of each. This is number seven of the edition and is dedicated to Sister Esther Carlotta.

Mr. A. C. Blowers is home from a two days' business trip to Clearwater.

Mr. T. J. Betty of Montgomery, Ala., has concluded a short visit to his daughter, Mrs. E. M. Finch, leaving for home yesterday by the way of St. Augustine and Jacksonville.

The friends in this section of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Jackson of Gainesville will be grieved to learn of the death of the latter, which occurred Sunday in Atlanta, where her husband had taken her for treatment. Interment was made yesterday in Gainesville. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson attended the reunion of Confederate Veterans held in this city last October and while here they were greeted by a large number of friends of long standing and made new friends, all of whom will sympathize deeply with Mr. Jackson in his bereavement.

The King's Daughters will hold a call meeting tomorrow at 10 a. m. at the home of its president, Mrs. C. L. Littinger.

The young ladies' auction club will be entertained Friday afternoon by Miss Mary Burford.

Miss Helen Brown, who intended leaving today for Lexington, Va., to be an attendant at the marriage of a college mate on the twenty-ninth, has deferred her departure for several days on account of illness in the family of the bride-elect.

Tomorrow after 1 o'clock the Altar Guild will have on exhibition at its fancy work sale at the old Anderson Pharmacy, a missionary cake to be sampled by all visitors. The recipe for the cake will be sold at ten cents. The cake is very delicious and its special qualities are economy, it being butterless, eggless and milkless. Friends are invited to call for a sample.

The Baptist sewing circle will hold its Christmas bazaar Thursday, Dec. 18th, from 10 to 5 o'clock at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Bunyan Stephens. There will be on sale a full line of beautiful fancy work articles, cakes, candies, salad dressings and such like.

Fred Winer has been absent from school for the past few days on account of illness.

Miss Alice Wev, the competent trimmer for the Affleck millinery establishment, left yesterday for her home in Bartow to remain until after the holidays.

Mme. Marcella Sembrich, the noted singer, is seriously ill with pneumonia in New York city and her admirers have cause to be alarmed for her condition is grave.

Miss Mary Verdery of Jacksonville, who has been a delightful visitor to Ocala was, at the annual election of officers of the Pan-Hellenic Association held Monday, made secretary of the organization. Miss Elizabeth Corbett was elected president to succeed Miss Helen Hunt.

Miss Ernestine Brooks returned Monday from a visit to Miss Fay Cribbitt in St. Petersburg and Miss Polly McMullen at Clearwater.

The affairs of the Baptist sewing circle for the ensuing year will be under the management of the following officers, who were elected at the last meeting of the circle: President, Mrs. A. R. Sandlin; vice president, Mrs. Elmer DeCamp; treasurer, Mrs. B. H. Seymour.

Governor and Mrs. Park Trammell left Sunday evening en route to Tallahassee. Mrs. Trammell has visited her sister, Mrs. G. W. Phillips, in Orlando, and friends in Apopka and Winter Park for the past week, and the governor arrived on Saturday and gave an address at the Elks' memorial service Sunday afternoon.—Orlando Sentinel.

Christmas Bazaar Tomorrow

Beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning and continuing through the day, St. Margaret's Guild and the Altar Guild of Grace church will hold their annual Christmas fancy work and candy sale at the old Anderson Pharmacy. The guilds have a large number of articles, both pretty and useful, and those who are in the midst of getting Christmas gifts will do well to visit the sale to get suggestions if not to take advantage of buying attractive articles at reasonable prices.

Notice, Eastern Stars

Ocala chapter No. 29, O. E. S., will hold election of officers and conferring of degree work next Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

Auxiliary Hospital Board

Members of the auxiliary board of the Marion County Hospital are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. W. K. Zewadski at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. A full attendance of the board is urged as business of much importance will be transacted.

Mrs. C. C. Bryant will be hostess to a cycle tea tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Massey were in the city from Lake Weir today, doing some shopping.

The 8 o'clock dancing club will enjoy its fortnightly dance Friday evening at the Woman's Club building.

Miss Tillie Pasteur of Lake Weir was a Christmas shopper today.

Miss Dixie Pillans of Electra, left yesterday for Madison to visit relatives until after the Yuletide.

Mrs. Fred Smith and little daughter have returned to their home at Clearwater after a visit to Mr. Smith's sister, Mrs. L. H. Pillans and to relatives at Martel.

Mrs. Christian Ax entertained very pleasantly this afternoon the members of the two table auction club which meets weekly on Wednesday. An attractive handkerchief case was awarded for top score and following the games sandwiches, coffee and cake were served. Mrs. Ax's guests were Mrs. N. Hickman, Mrs. L. R. Chazal, Mrs. F. T. Schreiber, Miss Minnie Gamsby, Mrs. G. K. Robinson, Miss Abbie Munroe and Mrs. M. G. Chambers.

Dr. and Mrs. W. K. Lane purchased this morning the residence on Fourth street, across from the home of Mrs. P. G. Blake, and next month will take possession. They will have the house entirely done over. Later on they expect to build on their lot in Linwood addition.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Terrell Barco of Gainesville, the former a son of Mr. B. B. Barco, formerly a resident of this county, but now of Clearwater, expect to leave in a few days, possibly Saturday, for the Philippine Islands to reside. Mr. Barco before his marriage spent several years in the Philippines in the employment of the government.

The Methodist sewing circle will hold its annual Christmas fancy work and candy sale Friday, Dec. 10, on the north end of the Ocala House piazza.
